Amended Complaint Filed: February 25, 2026

1 I, Tyler J. O'Connell, declare:

2 1. I am an attorney licensed to practice law before all courts in the State of California, and I
3 am an attorney at the law firm of Porter Scott, counsel of record for Defendant CSAA INSURANCE
4 EXCHANGE. Except for those matters stated on information and belief, the facts set forth herein are true
5 of my own personal knowledge and if called as a witness, I could and would properly testify hereto.

6 2. On April 9, 2026, I caused to be filed with the Court and served on Plaintiff by Certified
7 Mail and courtesy copy via email a copy of Defendant's Special Motion to Strike per Code Civ. Proc.
8 § 425.16 ("Anti-SLAPP motion").

9 3. Defendant's Anti-SLAPP motion is based on the nature of Plaintiff's allegations as 10 contained in the original Complaint and in the First Amended Complaint ("FAC"). Plaintiff's allegations
11 squarely target Defendant's litigation conduct all from Plaintiff's underlying personal injury jury trial—
12 which Plaintiff lost by defense verdict in April 2025.

13 4. Prior to filing the Anti-SLAPP motion, I informed Plaintiff in writing, and on a phone call,
14 of my intention of filing an Anti-SLAPP motion should he not withdraw the FAC, in its entirety—as the
15 entirety of the purported legal theories in Plaintiff's FAC focus inextricably on Defendant's protected
16 litigation conduct.

17 5. Plaintiff refused to withdraw his FAC, in writing and on two meet and confer phone calls.
18 And Defendant's Anti-SLAPP motion was properly filed on April 9, 2026.

19 6. On June 24, 2026, Defendant's Anti-SLAPP motion came for hearing and the Court
20 granted Defendant's Anti-SLAPP motion, in its entirety. (Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and 21 correct copy of this Court's July 1, 2026 Order, granting Defendant's Anti-SLAPP motion.)

22 7. I had previously attached to Defendant's Reply to Opposition to Anti-SLAPP, a copy of 23 legal invoicing from my office in this matter. That invoicing, attached to Reply, was limited only to those 24 matters directly related to preparing, meet and confer efforts regarding, drafting, filing, and appearing in 25 Court with respect to Defendant's Anti-SLAPP motion. This created a reduced attorneys' fees amount
26 when compared to the full amounts billed in legal fees on this case.

8. After a review and analysis of controlling statutory and case authorities, I am now submitting a revised legal fees invoicing, which no longer reduces the recoverable attorneys' fees.

9. My attorney's fees in this action are invoiced at a billable rate of $210 per hour and I spent 165.60 (total time; some time was at lower, paralegal rate for staff work) hours in litigating this case against Plaintiff, in its entirety. As the entirety of the case is legally unsupportable, under Code Civ. Proc. § 425.16, I therefore move this Court for all fees incurred by Defendant in being forced to litigate this meritless lawsuit, including preparing and filing Defendant's Anti-SLAPP motion and this Motion for Attorneys' fees, supporting Declarations, review and analysis of this motion, correspondences with clients and Plaintiff, gathering and marking exhibits, and preparing for the hearing on this motion. Hence, in total my attorneys' fees ($37,038.50) and costs ($2,353.62) expended in litigating this case are: $39,392.12.

10. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of my office's invoicing for attorneys' fees incurred in this matter—redacted to preserve privilege, but listing all pertinent information, hours, and fees incurred, totaling 198.00 hours, and $37,038.50 in attorneys' fees.

11. Attached hereto as Exhibit C is a true and correct copy of my office's invoicing for all costs incurred in this matter, totaling $2,353.62.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct, and that this declaration was executed this 19th day of August 2026, at Sacramento, California.

Case No. CGC-25-631802

ORDER GRANTING SPECIAL
MOTION TO STRIKE FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT AND DENYING OTHER RELIEF

This order disposes of all motions that were heard in this case in Department 301 on June 24, 2026.

Order on Special Motion to Strike

Defendant CSAA Insurance Exchange's special motion to strike plaintiff's First Amended Complaint is granted. Plaintiff's first amended complaint (FAC), filed on February 25, 2026, alleges that he was harmed by CSAA's misrepresentation in its letter denying an insurance claim that it had made and concluded an investigation. According to the FAC, he was damaged because the letter led him to believe that evidence had been collected and preserved and CSAA had made an adequate investigation. Although plaintiff

1 now seeks to recharacterize the FAC as targeting the denial itself and not the representations
2 in the letter, the FAC pleads that plaintiff was harmed by the representation.

3 The court broadly construes the anti-SLAPP statute. (Code Civ. Proc., § 425.16, subd.
4 (a)¹.) Courts deciding anti-SLAPP motions use a two-step procedure. If the defendant shows
5 that the plaintiff's claims arise from protected activity (prong one), then the burden "shifts to 6 the plaintiff to demonstrate the merit of the claim by establishing a probability of success"
7 (prong two). (Baral v. Schnitt (2016) 1 Cal.5th 376, 384.) Under prong two, the plaintiff must
8 make a "prima facie factual showing sufficient to sustain a favorable judgment." (Id. at 385.)
9 In performing its analysis, the court looks to the pleadings, declarations or affidavits, and 10 judicially noticeable material concerning the facts upon which liability is based. (§ 425.16, 11 subd. (b)(2).)

13 "[A] claim may be struck only if the speech or petitioning activity itself is the wrong
14 complained of, and not just evidence of liability or a step leading to some different act for 15 which liability is asserted." (Park v. Board of Trustees of California State University (2017)
16 2 Cal.5th 1057, 1060.) Defendant meets prong one of the anti-SLAPP statute as the First
17 Amended Complaint ("FAC") arises from protected activity under § 425.16, subdivision
18 (e)(2) ["any written or oral statement or writing made in connection with an issue under 19 consideration or review by a...judicial body"]. Plaintiff's action is based on defendant's 20 litigation conduct. (FAC, par. 22F.) "Statements made in litigation, or in connection with 21 litigation, are protected by" the anti-SLAPP statute. (Bergstein v. Stroock & Stroock & Lavan
22 LLP (2015) 236 Cal.App.4th 793, 803; City of Colton v. Singletary (2012) 206 Cal.App.4th
23 751, 767 [filing motions and other litigation conduct triggers the anti-SLAPP statute].)

24
26
27
28 ¹ All subsequent statutory citations are to the Code of Civil Procedure except where otherwise noted.

1 Plaintiff's pre-litigation denial letter also implicates the anti-SLAPP statute. (FAC,
2 pars. 1, 2, 4, 22D.) "Case law establishes that communications that are intimately
3 intertwined with, and preparatory to, the filing of judicial proceedings qualify as petitioning
4 activity for the purpose of the anti-SLAPP statute." (Cabral v. Martins (1999) 177
5 Cal.App.4th 471, 482; see also Salma v. Capon (2008) 161 Cal.App.4th 1275, 1285 [notice
6 of rescission of contract given as prerequisite to litigation was protected communication
7 under § 425.16].)

9 Plaintiff's illegality argument fails. "Conduct that would otherwise come within the 10 scope of the anti-SLAPP statute does not lose its coverage ... simply because it is alleged to 11 have been unlawful or unethical. An exception to the use of section 425.16 applies only if a
12 defendant concedes, or the evidence conclusively establishes, that the assertedly protected
13 speech or petition activity was illegal as a matter of law. The exception does not apply here."
14 (Birkner v. Lam (2007) 156 Cal.App.4th 275, 285 [citation simplified].)

16 Section 425.17, subdivision (b), does not apply. Plaintiff is not bringing this action
17 "solely in the public interest or on behalf of the general public." Section 425.17, subdivision
18 (c), is also inapplicable because defendant was not promoting commercial activity towards 19 the plaintiff. Rather, defendant was engaging in litigation-related activity.

21 Since defendants meet prong one, the plaintiff must establish via admissible evidence
22 a probability of prevailing on the claims (prong two). (See Computer Xpress, Inc. v. Jackson
23 (2001) 93 Cal.App.4th 993, 1010.) Plaintiff cannot establish his claims because the litigation
24 privilege bars them. (Civ. Code, § 47, subd. (b).)

26 "The usual formulation is that the privilege applies to any communication (1) made in 27 judicial or quasi-judicial proceedings; (2) by litigants or other participants authorized by law;
28 (3) to achieve the objects of the litigation; and (4) that [has] some connection or logical relation to the action." (Silberg v. Anderson (1990) 50 Cal.3d 205, 212.) Defendants establish

1 these elements. “Any doubt about whether the privilege applies is resolved in favor of
2 applying it.” (Kashian v. Harriman (2002) 98 Cal.App.4th 892, 913.) The privilege applies
3 to defendant’s defense conduct including the prelitigation denial letter. (Dove Audio, Inc. v.
4 Rosenfeld, Meyer & Susman (1996) 47 Cal.App.4th 777, 784 [“Just as communications
5 preparatory to or in anticipation of the bringing of an action or other official proceeding are 6 within the protection of the litigation privilege of Civil Code [§ 47(b)], we hold that such
7 statements are equally entitled to the benefits of section 425.16.”]; Nguyen v. Proton
8 Technology Corp. (1999) 69 Cal.App.4th 140, 147 [The California Supreme Court “made 9 clear that the ‘litigation privilege’ applies to pre-litigation communications as well as those 10 occurring during the course of actual litigation.”].)

12 The court therefore grants the special motion to strike the First Amended Complaint.

13 Defendant’s request for fees is denied without prejudice to a subsequent motion. The 14 court cannot grant fees on the basis of a reply declaration, which does not give plaintiff the 15 opportunity to respond.
16

17 Order on Motion for Leave to File Third Amended Complaint

18 Plaintiff’s renewed motion to amend is denied. There is no express or implied right to 19 amend a pleading once a special motion to strike has been granted. (See Simmons v. Allstate
20 Ins. Co. (2001) 92 Cal.App.4th 1068, 1073.)

22 Order on Demurrer to Amended Complaint

23 Off calendar as moot in light of the court’s order granting the special motion to strike
24 the First Amended Complaint.

25 Order on Motion to Strike Amended Complaint

26 Off calendar as moot in light of the court’s order granting the special motion to strike
27 the First Amended Complaint.
28

1 Order on Plaintiff's Motion to Strike O'Connell Declaration

2 The motion to strike portions of the O'Connell Declaration is denied as moot. In its
3 order granting the anti-SLAPP motion, the court deferred consideration of fees to a
4 subsequent motion. The court has not relied on the objected-to portions of the O'Connell
5 Declaration.

7 Order on Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Discovery

8 The motion to compel discovery is DENIED. Discovery is stayed while an anti-
9 SLAPP motion is pending. (§ 425.16, subd. (g).) The motion is now moot since the court
10 has granted the anti-SLAPP motion.

11 Order on Plaintiff's Motion for Sanctions

12 Plaintiff's motion for sanctions is denied. Defendants' anti-SLAPP motion is well-
13 taken, for the reasons explained in the order on that motion.
